

Dr. Yaacov Lozowick

Dr. Yaacov Lozowick is an historian by training. He dedicated much of his career to computerizing large archives, as the Director of Archives at Yad Vashem (1993-2007), and as the Chief Archivist of the State of Israel (2011-2018).

He currently teaches Information Science at Bar Ilan University, and heads a research project into the history of Israel's settlement policy since 1967, at the Taub Center of Israel Studies, NYU.